

I think its time we do something to stop unwanted and annoying phone calls. I feel we should have a national do-not-call list. This has made a big improvement in the state of Colorado where they have a do-not-call list. Their rate of participation (about 70% I hear) shows the level of support for such a list. Its time that those that pay for their phone service have some control as to how it is used.